INTERVIEW SUMMARY

Applicant's undersigned representative spoke with the Examiner on August 2, 2007 concerning the advisory action mailed July 3, 2007 (Advisory Action). In the aforementioned Advisory Action, the rejection of all the pending claims was maintained as being unpatentable over Bizarre Creations (Project Gotham Racing Manual) in view of MobyGames (RoadBlasters). The Applicant's representative had previously and timely presented a declaration under 37 CFR §1.132 (Declaration) as to why RoadBlasters does not disclose certain elements of the Applicant's claimed invention, specifically that RoadBlasters does not disclose "a visual string of path markers."

In the interview, the Examiner stated that he had considered the Declaration, but that he did not consider the Declaration to be persuasive in distinguishing the "fuel spheres" described in RoadBlasters from the "path markers" claimed in the Application. The Examiner provided no support or discussion with respect to that conclusion.

CONCLUSION

If the Examiner has any questions regarding the present application or other issues that might be expedited through a telephone conference rather than a written action, the Examiner is invited to contact the Applicants' undersigned representative at the number provided below.

Respectfully submitted,
Scott Campbell
